

Charu Dhyani (Entrepreneur)

I'm an Entrepreneur based out of in Hyderabad, Telangana, India and am a fan of reading and travel. My business venture, Wudbox is aimed at increasing awareness about mindful consumption.

I'm passionate about doing my bit in saving the planet through small but concrete actions and have a huge amount of respect for proponents of sustainability, eco-friendly living and conscious consumption. With my team of dedicated individuals who are as conscious as me about the environment and leaving a legacy, I am striving each day to create a better one through Wudbox.

I'm also interested in innovation of all forms and love to find ways of doing something faster or simpler. Along with a love for innovation, I also have a huge liking for design and believe that both innovation and design go hand in hand.

With a penchant for ever evolving and discovering myself, I love to travel and make it a point to see at least 3 new places in a year.

Kinjal Shah

(Social Entrepreneur)

- For most of us 30 year olds are synonymous with taking toddler steps in their career, partying hard and leading a
- care free life. Not Kinjal shah, she took a conscious decision to don an important role early at 18 in her life. She is a
- trustee at SHWAS a non profit organization which essentially looks into education of underprivileged kids.
- Starting with 3 kids in 2008, Kinjal teaches 650 slum kids in 9 communities everyday to provide them quality
- education. She believes that the only difference between them and us is the availability of resources and
- opportunities and her soul lies in bridging that gap. There have been a lot of challenges in her 11 years journey but
- that does not stop her from providing quality education to slum kids every passing day.

Jiya Parmar (Business Woman)

- Jiya Parmar - Managing Director of Jishnu Enterprise A beautiful woman is a beautiful woman, but a beautiful woman with a brain is an absolutely lethal combination. Jiya is the epitome of it. She has started Jishnu Enterprise before 2 years at Vadodara. Jishnu enterprise provides man power for housekeeping at various hospitals and schools. Jiya is not only running a business but also doing social services along with her household stuff. She is always ready to help the needy people.
- As someone has rightly said, “We only rise by lifting others.” Jiya has proven it by helping poor children.
- She helps poor children in education, in any hospitalization related activity during sickness and also who are suffering from big disease like Cancer. She visits them and spends quality time with the children. She also collects funds for these children's education and food. She is associated with the orphanage of Ahmedabad, Surat & Nadiad city. She believes that “we don't have to be great to start something but we have to start to be great.”
- It is difficult to manage a business, household responsibilities and also to educate poor children but Jiya is lucky that she has support from her husband and also from her in-laws who are not just morally support her but also provide financial help to educate children.
- Jiya's dream is to provide best housekeeping services to the clients to make the world clean. For her valuable services towards society she got “Pravasi Seva Ratna'16' award. Even newspapers had also acknowledged her for her selfless efforts to serve the society.
