

Priyanka Sinha

A professional with an entrepreneurial approach and a sports enthusiast brimming with optimism.

Taking on organisational challenges by applying her life learnings has helped her achieve success.

Her career as a sportsperson started when she was selected as the first NCC cadet from Jharkhand to represent the State in the Republic day parade, New Delhi, during 2003. She successfully managed the Jamshedpur battalion for two years & won the Best Cadet award of the state. She feels that discipline and leadership qualities instilled in NCC has propelled her in her career.

She is currently associated with Asia's leading 'Sports ticketing & Experiential travel Company called Fanatic Sports, responsible for corporate sales, operations, strategic planning and execution for events like Asian Games 2018, ICC world cup 2019, T20 World Cup 2020, Tokyo Olympics 2020, FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022™ etc. to assure unforgettable experience for their clients.

She is trained in Hatha yoga at Sivananda institute of teachers training, Tamil Nadu. She practises yoga and mix martial arts regularly. She used to be active on stage in Prithvi Theatre groups as well.

She has experienced that women, specially from smaller cities and towns of India, have enormous untapped potential, which can flourish with the help of appropriate timely guidance and suitable platforms, for good of the individual and the country at large.

She believes WICCI to be an ideal platform to realise her dream of empowering women under the leadership and guidance of it's founder Dr. Harbeen Arora.
