Council Vision & Mission

“Why do I get up in the morning?” is a huge question. “Why am I on the planet?” is a complex notion to unpack. “What am I meant to do for humanity?” can put you into a state of total and undeniable paralysis and comparison. Having a purpose is how you become an influential voice and have a global impact as a thought leader. And until you are clear on your purpose, values and mission, your voice cannot have the reach it's meant to have. Our mission is to inculcate the confidence that people can speak for themselves and for other people also.
