

NOMINATIONS FOR RAJASTHAN D&I COUNCIL

1. PALLAVI WALI (State President)

Being raised in a Kashmiri Pandit-Manipuri Meitei household in Rajasthan helped Pallavi achieve a pan-India outlook towards community development and inculcated in her the spirit of Vasudhaiva Kutumbhikam – the world is but one family. She is strongly committed to human rights, sustainable ways of living, peaceful conflict resolution, gender equality, and firmly believes that education is a powerful tool to overcome structural violence.

Pallavi holds a Bachelor's degree in Political Science from Lady Shri Ram College for Women, University of Delhi & a Master's degree in Conflict Management & Development from Malaviya Centre for Peace Research, Banaras Hindu University. She has worked on varied projects ranging from livelihood generation, tribal welfare, menstrual health management and social justice with multiple stakeholders.

During the 2015 Hum Kadam Dialogue between the youth of Kashmir & Delhi organized by Women in Security Conflict Management and Peace (WISCOMP), she presented a co-authored paper titled "Militarization and conflict in 'paradise on earth': prospects and role of tourism in peacebuilding in Kashmir". She was also a youth speaker-panellist at the Yuva Pravasi Bhartiya Sammelan organised by the Ministry of External Affairs and Government of Uttar Pradesh at Banaras Hindu University in 2019. Until recently, she was serving as a Project Associate at ONGC Foundation, New Delhi while currently, she is a NextGen Networker at Youth Conflict Management & Mediation Initiative (YCM).

2. EKTA RATHORE

Ekta Rathore is a legal researcher specialising in human rights, humanitarian law and outer space law. She has experience of working on gender, sexuality, culture, criminal justice reform, death penalty, torture, disability, minority rights, discrimination, children's rights and legal aid, among other thematic areas. She completed BA LLB (Hons) from the National University of Study and Research in Law, with focus on international law, before pursuing LLM in human rights law from the University of Nottingham. She was awarded Developing Solutions Scholarship in 2019 for her master's degree. Ekta is enthusiastic about reading, writing and storytelling.

3. PRACHI PRADHAN

Prachi Pradhan is a strategic thinker and executor with 6 years of experience in the Hospitality and Luxury Retail sector. She has handled roles that include brand expansion, brand building, new project openings, sales, marketing and communication, CRM and operations thereby helping develop an overall perspective about a brand in the market. Her key competencies are Sales and Business Operations, Marketing and Business Development, Communication and Customer Service.

4. MINAL MEHTA

Minal is a professional social worker, trained and experienced in working with diverse rural communities in Rajasthan and Himachal Pradesh - adolescent girls, in particular. She has interned with various organizations such as Barefoot College, Jagori rural charitable Trust and Astha Sansthan in domains of education and gender. She's a diligent, dependable, and passionate individual, dedicated towards solving complex social problems with creative and sustainable solutions. Currently working as a research assistant under a ICSSR-IMPRESS sponsored project titled, "Legislative Policy-making on Climate Justice in India: The Study of Parliamentary Businesses, Practices and Oversights since Thirteen Lok Sabha". She is a firm believer of working on herself to help others to help themselves.

5. DR. SUCHITRA CHAUDHARY

Dr. Suchitra has a doctorate in Human Resource Management, First Class Management Post-Graduate, Gold Medalist - Diploma in Training & Development, ISTD, New Delhi, ACT Certified Trainer, IFC-NIESBUD, Lead Auditor ISO 9001:2015 and Certified Master Trainer, MEPSC, Ministry of Skill Development & Entrepreneurship (MSDE), GoI. I possess an excellent academic background with many laurels for brilliant academic achievements. I have four research papers published to my credit on the topics pertaining to finance and human resource in renowned international journals, and a few are under progress. She has 18+ years of enriched experience in various domains like Strategic Operations, Business Development, Human Resource, Education/ Skill Development (Central / State Govt. Funded / CSR), Training (Corporate/MSME), Management Consulting in HR/ Skill Development/ Standards & Certifications (Domestic and Off-shore Companies) and Accounts Management cutting across different manufacturing as well as service sector industries, i.e. Hospitality (Oberoi Group), Construction & Real Estate, NGOs & Core Business Groups, Govt. Sector Organisations, Management Consulting Companies, with a track record of proven ability to constantly improve systems and processes.

6. Dr. RASHMI PAREEK

Dr. Rashmi is a member of the Indian Human Ecology Council (IHEC) and Chapter of Commonwealth Human Ecology Council (CHEC) CHEC-INDIA, a Member of Executive Committee of TAABAR Society, Jaipur, and the Head of the Department of Social Science at the prestigious Maharani Gayatri Devi Girls' School, Jaipur.

She has over 20 years of enriched experience in the education sector and takes keen interest in the issues revolving around climate change and environmental conservation. She has not only participated but also been on the panels of various national and international conferences like UNESCO-GLOBE Learning Expedition in Nepal and GLOBE Annual Partner Meeting in Los Angeles, U.S.A.