Council Vision & Mission

The vision of the Business Coaching Council is to create 'Accessibility' for knowledge, skills and resources for building any business.

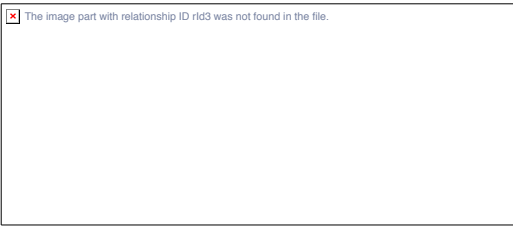

Our mission would be to enable and empower women entrepreneurs from Delhi and make them self-reliant and sustainable in 3 years.

The core execution agenda would be:

- Collaborate with policy makers to resolve any identified gap in the implementation journey of an entrepreneur.
- Create and bring forums in play to run seminars and conferences with defined outcomes.
- Establish Training teams for coaching women entrepreneurs to build every part of their business with complete know how.
- Conduct specialised coaching facilitations to help women leaders remove obstacles and help them steer forward.
- Conduct business networking events.
- Spread the word on social media channels
- Create a Mentoring structure for each woman who needs support.
- Leverage the power of the WICCI platform for every woman in need of business coaching support.
- Establish best practices and keep a benchmark with respect to other business coaching councils.

MEENAKSHI SHARMA, COUNCIL MEMBER

COUNCIL MEMBER, BUSINESS COACHING COUNCIL
WICCI

Use Me Works was founded in 2011 by Meenakshi Sharma with a noble belief of "Nothing should go to waste". The company is currently operating in New Delhi by a group of enthusiastic and hard working women working together to help people opt for ecological options. We collaborate with factories, boutiques, and individuals to help them upcycle their fabric waste. As a one-stop solution to complete upcycling needs, we are providing both alternatives and education to help the society opt for a sustainable environment.

Meenakshi Sharma through her organization 'Use Me Works' is working on the concept of upcycling and with the help of her team upcycle more than 200kgs of waste every month. She also educates and trains people to be responsible towards their waste by teaching them how to make utility and decor products using waste. She also believes handcrafting is a great stress buster and a wonderful skill that stays lifetime. Through her products and workshops, she is trying to revive the lost skills of handcrafting the old and discarded fabrics/clothes.
